To Whom It May Concern,

It is my great Honor to write on behalf of the LifeLight Music Festival to recommend Dan Brown Jr. as an artist to present the Gospel at your venue. Dan Brown Jr. is a man who is strong in his faith and he showed that at the LifeLight Battle of the Bands. Dan Brown Jr. was chosen to worship at the Firehouse Stage in order to represent God's love through his music and his testimony of what Christ has done in his life. I look forward to working with him and his band. I strongly recommend him for your venue and I know you will get the opportunity to hear the intense Gospel the way Dan delivers it. Dan is a man like David. A man after God's own heart. Thank you for your time and prayers.

Blessings in Christ Name,

Amanda Hines
